

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

have failed as yet to agree on any measure to afford relief to the exchange market, and quotations for Money and Bonds are extremely nominal. Business on Corn Exchange is paralyzed, and prices of products almost nominal. Bank Shares and State Securities fall in price for day—of the former very small, owing to the entire absence of buyers; the various kinds are priced for sale at 5 to 10 per cent. reduction from last week. Government Bonds are steady.

It is rumored that the Bank Auditor of Illinois has declined to take any more Southern State Stock as a basis for circulation.

The Bond list is much lower. Price is falling heavily.

The Bank-statement for the week past is as follows: Decrease in Loans, $1,355,801; decrease in Specie, $1,681,012; decrease in Circulation, $281,795; decrease in Deposits, $2,836,623.

A meeting of Bank officers was held this afternoon at the Bank of Commerce, at which the following Banks were represented: Bank of New York; Manhattan Bank; Merchants' Bank; Metropolitan Bank; Bank of New York; Bank of the State of New York; Bank of the Republic; American Exchange Bank; Metropolitan Bank; Shore and Leathers Bank; Continental Bank; First Bank and Bank of Commerce.

It was unanimously resolved that the Banks here represented will unite in the purchase, through a committee, of Sterling notes to the extent of $4,000,000 and pay for the same in proportion to their capital, prior, under the call of the Committee.

Messrs John A. Stephens, Moses Taylor, and Thomas Tillson were appointed said Committee.

The business of the transmission of the bills &c. is to be conducted by the Bank of Commerce, for the joint account of the Banks interested.

It was also resolved that the Banks represented will, during the present week, expand to the extent of 5 per cent. beyond their receipts, and receive bills at the same course to the other Banks of the city.

From Denver City.

FORT KHAERRE, K. T., November 19.—We have advices from Denver City to the 15th inst. Considerable snow had fallen. Large numbers of miners and stockmen are on the Juan mines. The quartz mills are nearly all stopped on account of the water freezing up. The Provisional Legislature had organized and adjourned to meet again on the 19th inst.

Gold premium on New York was quoted at 2½¢ 3/4 premium.

Failures in New York.

NEW YORK, November 19.—The firms of N. H. Wolfe & Co., and Wright & Lane, both engaged in the Western produce commission business, have failed. Ramors caught in regard to another prominent firm in the same business are unfounded.

The Bank of Sing Sing after a hard run of several days, closed its doors on Saturday.

California Election.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—Reliable vote California dispatches say that Douglas has 3,000 majority over Lincoln and 11,000 over Breckinridge. Other dispatches say that the returns already received amount to 20,000 vote, and that Lincoln is 5,000 ahead and is expected to carry the State.

Poisoning Case.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., November 19.—The trial of R. S. Richardson and Sarah Ann Healdy, for poisoning Stephen Healdy, their husband of the latter, closed to-day. Richardson was convicted, and sentenced to the State Prison for thirty years. Mrs. Healdy was acquitted.

Vessels Arrived at New York.

NEW YORK, November 19.—The ship Andrew Jackson arrived from Liverpool to-day, having made the passage in three days. The steamer John Bull, from Glasgow, arrived to-day.

Illinois Election.

CHICAGO, November 19.—The official vote of Illinois is as follows: Lincoln, 172,545; Douglas, 160,849; Bell, 4,846; Breckinridge, 2,172. The increase of the vote over 1856 is 100,131.

Fire in Rutland, Vt.

RUTLAND, Vt., November 19.—Bryant & Whoolam's and Atwood's livery stables, Pond & Marbo's drug store, and a bowling saloon were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss $1,000.

Municipal Election.

TEANEK HAVEN, N. J., November 19.—At the polls for town clerk held to-day, W. H. Stewart, Democrat, was elected Mayor over J. M. Baird, Republican, by very major vote.

Telegraph to Paducah, Ky.

LEWISVILLE, November 19.—The Southwestern Telegraph line has been extended to Paducah, Ky.

Died.

NEWARK, N. J., November 19.—Geo. C. Thorburn, of this city, florist, and son of Grant Thorburn, died last night from injuries received by a fall.
